

Here, : "Knowledge/Lily" with "Wine/essence" is the base, "Harmony/balance" in the center and "Strike/sudden" at the top was intentional to the "Wizard" glyph, which, as I said, I believe was sent to me by the lily mind. Interior glyphs I was not consciously aware of are "Light/Sun" and "Spirit/breath", which makes it even better for my way of thinking. Note that 180° rotation of the entire glyph construct around the x-axis morphs it to "Visual Language" and that removing the wave from the World leaves the Wizard without harmony in the heart, and he becomes merely a lexicon.
